Kremer Calls G. O. P. Platform "Exemplification of Art of Evasion.

AUDITORIUM, SAN FRANCISCO, hane 28—Addressing the opening se-sion of the Democrate national con-cention today, J. Bruce Keemer, sice chalrman of the national committee chairman of the national committee, said:

"Led through a labyrmth of devious political pathways, but in the mazes of political trickers, following the Fied Pipers of Republicanism, the Checago convention emerged upon the well-parent roadway of standinations:

"That heterogeneous mass promutigated a remarkable document remarkable in the fact that it is a masteric exemplification of the art of evasion. Not content with the direct insult in the intelligence of the progressive differents wrongly placed in their ranks, they once more surrendered the continuof their party to the old forces of reaction and mominated a leader of that dynasty of dollars, against whose influence the common people redoiled until the great movement of progressives me drove it from power and installed in its stead a party truly representative of the people.

"In marked contrast to the gathering of the opposition, we have men deal with living basies and to advise the propile of America and to advise the propile of America and to advise the people of America and position were defected an assurance based on achievement. We present a pledge founded on performance.

"The Republican party would turn achievement. We present a pledge founded on performance.

"The Republican party would turn hackward, unmindful of the hopes and aspirations of forward-looking men and women, and would have us restore to power reactionary forces which could only result in ruin and disaster, but we will continue to keep our eyes to the front and will hold to the path that during eight giorious years has left America to prosperity, peace and world leadership.

"Our opponents speak to the people."

during eight glorious years has less america to prosperity, peace and world leadership.

"Our opponents speak to the people in the language of yesterday. They see only through the lenses of reaction. Through years of retrogression their party has now reached the decadent stage. The Chicago platform stamps it as a party of destruction. Its declaration of principles condemns but suggests no remedy either for real or fancied ills. It is out of time with free people everywhere it is out of the with free people everywhere it is out of harmony with the world's desire. It no longer, as in the days of its rebirth, standars a giant championing the cause of freedom, but, dwarfed by loss of principle, it has developed into a various, crabbed old scold.

"America will not look for leadership in that party: America will not tolerate the leadership of that party. Never, more than now, does our country look to Democracy to save it from the course of national degradation prescribed by Republicanism or to save it from abject humiliation before the nation itself. It was created when the ferces of popular government assumed for the first time in the world's, history the direct conduct of a nation. It has progressed in growth and attainment. It has kept pace with the time and has measured the tread of the advancing host of liberal government.

"Our party has never been an evasive party. It was not evasion that made Thomas Jefferson the patron saint of democratic government:

"Our party has never been an evasive personification of honesty and fearlessness; it was not evasion that made the Democratic party of today the champion of the world's hopes, and neither will it be evasion that will make the nominee of this convention the president of the United States.

"Our party will present politics in a direct and constructive was: the Re-

United States.

Our party will present politics in a direct and constructive way; the Republican platform is but an ingenious degice meant to conceal irreconcilable differences. "In delivering our message to the American people our party will raise its anchor upon the shores of honesty and siger unfalteringly through the straits of Yourago.

of courage.

"With civilization's existence jeopardized in the recent inferno of world chaos, America reached out its hand to stay destructive forces. We placed her once more in her exalted position and raised again the fallen torch from whence radiates the light that tempers brutish hearts and softens human souls.
The world is waiting to hear the de-brutish hearts and softens human souls. The world is waiting to hear the decision of the American electorate upon the covenant of the league of nations, a war-worn world implores America to take the lead in this great movement and humanity's voice cries out imploringly to our great nation.

"Our country did not failer in its duty to silence the game of war, our party will not failer in the petusis pare?"
